LEARN ABOUT THE HUTTERITE COLONIES OF CENTRAL MONTANA

History

The Hutterites are a religious group originating from the Reformation of the 16th century. In the early 1520's, the ferment identified with Martin Luther and the Reformation spread to a group in Switzerland that came to be known as the Anabaptists as they believed in the rebaptizing of adults. The Anabaptists additionally shared a belief in the separation of Church and State and they were committed pacifists. The branch of the Anabaptists that we know as Hutterites was founded in Moravia in 1528 by Jacob Hutter and is distinguished from other Anabaptist sects such as the Mennonites and the Amish by its belief in the community of goods in which all material things are held in common. The Hutterites survived periods of persecution and suffering alternating with periods of prosperity leading to their eventual migration to North America in 1874. Initial colonies were established in the Canadian Prairie provinces and the Dakotas and they prospered until great tension developed during World War I as a result of their pacifist beliefs. Those tensions gradually disappeared during the great depression and during World War II, the Hutterites again refused to participate, but engaged in other forms of alternative public service. Today there are about 45,000 Hutterites living on 460 colonies of which about 50 are in Montana. Additional information on the history and beliefs of the Hutterites are at www.hutterites.org.

Hutterite Life Today

Hutterites are a communal people living on scattered bruderhofs or colonies throughout the prairies of North America. Their religion is unique in that all material goods are held in common. All members of the colony are provided for equally and nothing is kept for personal gain. In every Hutterite colony, the minister or spiritual leader is also the chief executive and he, along with an advisory board, makes the day to day decisions. The advisory board consists of the minister, the colony manager, the farm/ranch manager and two or three witness brothers (deacons) who are elected for life.

Early education has always played an important role in Hutterite life and usually takes place in public schools located at the colony. More recently, many young colony children go on to public high schools and some are beginning to pursue college degrees. The Hutterites are by nature very hospitable and neighborly and frequent opportunities are found for visiting and joint projects with neighbors or other colonies. Wonderful insights into daily life on a Hutterite Colony are in the book by Lisa Stahl, My Hutterite Life. Another great source is Bill Allard's articles in the National Geographic. See <http://ngm.nationalgeographic.com/2006/06/hutterite-sojourn/allard-text>. A distinguishing characteristic of the Hutterites is their entrepreneurial spirit and initiative. A visit to a colony always has surprises in terms of produce or crafts or unique services that fill a niche in the local economy.

VISIT AND LEARN ABOUT COLONIES IN THE LEWISTOWN AREA

Ayers Colony

Hello! My name is Marilyn Stahl and I'm a resident of the Ayers Colony. We are located about 6 miles west of Grass Range, 23 miles east of Lewistown on Highway 87. The Hutterites at Ayers Colony came from Austria to Huron, South Dakota where they had resided since 1874. They purchased their land in Montana from former Montana governor Roy E. Ayers in 1944. The Colony currently has 9 families with a total population of 42 persons. Our Colony was the first to record Simmental cattle in the United States. We had cow number 22 in the American Simmental Association and sold bulls and club calves all over the US and Canada.

We have lots of special activities at the Colony that we are proud of. My mother, Anna Stahl, always has some prized poultry she enjoys raising and my brother Bill is Chief of the Cheadle Rural Fire Dept and is always happy to show off his latest fire fighting equipment. My Dad, John Stahl, loves to give tours of the Colony's modern meat processing facility that handled over 700 animals last year. In addition to my work at the Colony, I have been a first responder for the Grass Range Ambulance District for over 10 years and have recently been elected Chief Election Judge for the Grass Range Election District. Another specialty of our Colony is catering meals for special occasions with such delicacies as roast pig or roast quarter of beef.

We always welcome visitors to the colony with advance notice. Give me a call at 406-428-2207 and we can discuss your interests and the kind of visit that you'd find most rewarding.

King Colony

Hello! My name is Rita Hofer and I am pleased to introduce to the King Colony. We are located about 10 miles west of Lewistown on Highway 87 and then 2 miles north along Kolin/Ross Fork Road. Our Colony now owns the King Ranch which was one of the most famous and prosperous ranches in this part of Central Montana. It was first settled by Christ King in 1881 and the original cabin he built still stands on the property. The Ranch was operated by two sons, Anton and Joseph, until a combination of difficult economic conditions during the Great Depression and Joseph's death in 1934 led to the sale of the Ranch to a Hutterite Colony led by Reverend Joseph Stahl in 1935. Our Colony now has 13 families and a total population of 55 people.

Many of our farm and ranch operations are for our own consumption, but we do have a commercial dairy and cow/calf operation. I keep very busy with work at the Colony but also find time to Chair the local School Board and work as a precinct election worker. I am especially proud of the pheasant wreathes and I also do sewing craft work. My husband "Shorty" (Walter) Hofer works with the farming. I have always been an advocate of higher education for the children and am especially happy that my son Wesley is pursuing his college degree on line.

We often have visitors and I enjoy sharing the history of the ranch with them as well as giving them a glimpse into contemporary Hutterite life. If you would like to visit, call me at 406-538-8840 and we can discuss a convenient time and the things that would be of most interest to you.

Spring Creek Colony

Hi! My name is Kathy Walter. I am a member of the Spring Creek Colony located 14 miles northwest of Lewistown on Highway 426. Our Colony has a long history that goes back to 1912 when the King Ranch sold the lower (north) portion of their Ranch to a Hutterite Colony led by Jacob Stahl of Wolf Creek, South Dakota. During World War I, however, persecution of the Hutterites due largely to their pacifist beliefs and German heritage led them to sell the Colony and emigrate to Canada. Subsequently, in 1946, Jacob Walter and Paul Walter led a colony that that once again purchased the ranch. Today, we have about 20,000 acres with 13 families and a total population of 46 people. Like the King Colony, we have a commercial dairy and a cow/calf operation in addition to much agriculture that we pursue for our own consumption.

We stay very busy at the Colony but find time to do volunteer work with the rural fire department in Moore. If you come visit, I'll be sure to show you our beautiful new kitchen and dining complex of which we are very proud. We also have special interests that we pursue when time permits. I am particularly known for my wild Chokecherry and wild Juneberry jellies and syrups. My husband Jim is quite a builder and recently has been making sheds and small storage buildings for people in the area.

If you are interested in learning more about our Colony, I'd be happy to talk with you about a convenient time for a visit and the things in which you'd be most interested. Just give me a call at 406-538-5160.

Marilyn,

I want to let you know I have mailed my letter of introduction to you. It may be next to impossible to join your colony but as long as the possibility exists I would still like to visit your colony. I would like to get to know you and other members of the colony. At this point in my life, I do not have many friends and it has helped me to know that the Hutterites exist. What I hope to find at a Hutterite colony is the bond of faith among believers.

Please feel free to correspond with me.

Marilyn,

I often wonder why my Grandfather left Germany in the early 1900s, moved to a German settlement on the Volga River in Russia, and then immigrated to the USA. At this point in my life, I wish he would have immigrated to Switzerland. I believe the Swiss educational system would have been better for me.

What is clear to me now is your Hutterite colony is on a web page on the Internet. You are in the public domain and you have a responsibility to the people to honor the arrangement you have made with the people to accept visitors. If you do not want to accept visitors then you should make this fact clear on your web page.

What is also clear to me is I need to contact your minister at Ayers colony. I should have sent my letter of introduction to him but I honored the contact information I was given on the web page. I am requesting the name and the mailing address of your minister at Ayers colony.

Sincerely,
Robert Eichhorn

Dear Mr. Eichhorn:

I appreciate your enthusiasm about joining a Hutterite colony. If you are this persistent and determined about joining a Hutterite colony, it seems that you are very capable of achieving many other things, like finding and holding a job. I am glad to see that you do not lack determination, which will serve you well in life.

However, I would like to reiterate what my son stated in his response to your introduction letter. I realize that he may have been a bit blunt, and apologize if he offended you in any way. He was trying to convey, in no uncertain term, that it is impossible for you to join a Hutterite colony. I have brought your letter to the attention of our colony members and other members among different colonies. We are all in agreement that it is impossible for you, or anyone else, to join a Hutterite colony. The fact that you are German has no bearing, what so ever, on joining a Hutterite colony. I have also read the letters you send to the Spring Creek Colony. In it you, in my opinion, forcefully state that since our information is in the public domain, we have an obligation to the public to honor anyone's request of a visit. I disagree. We reserve the right to decline a visit to anyone we feel is unwelcome. We have extended an invitation to you to come and visit for a day, during our first phone conversation. We made it clear that you may visit but not stay. We do not have a responsibility to allow everyone and anyone to visit.

Please realize that there is no future with the Hutterites. Your energy used to pursue this matter can be better spent elsewhere. Please do not send any more letters, money, or call any Hutterite colonies. We have given you our answer. Please accept it.

Sincerely,

Dear Robert,

We received your letter with the copies of correspondence, a total of 19 pages, that you have had with the folks at the Ayers, King Ranch and Spring Creek Hutterite colonies in Montana about joining one of those colonies.

Today we called the King Ranch colony and spoke with 20 year old Wes Hofer there about your contact with them. I asked him to verify what his father, Walter Hofer, had written to you saying, "We are all in agreement that it is impossible for you, or anyone else, to join a Hutterite colony."

Your letter stated that Walter Hofer has 'officially excommunicated' you from all Hutterite colonies. Well, that is not exactly correct. He has no power to do that.

However, it does appear that the doors to the Hutterite colonies in Montana are closed to you. So here are my suggestions.

1. Find a Mennonite church there in the San Francisco area and attend it. There you may find friends and fellowship.
2. Read your Bible daily, go through the Gospels reading and studying a dozen or so verses a day. When you have gone through all four Gospels, start over. Also read the letters of Peter, John and Paul, but read the Gospels more often.
3. Contact the Elmendorf colony in southern Minnesota and ask to visit for a few days. Do not send such a lengthily introduction as you did to the Montana colonies. Just tell them a bit about yourself and why you desire community living. Share your Christian testimony with them.

5. Contact the I'SOT community in northern California. They are a communal group but not Hutterite. We have visited them a couple times.

Proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom of God: Love, Joy and Peace in Jesus.

Dear Robert,

Happy New Year to you! We pray that our Heavenly Father will watch over you and us closely and guide and protect us from evil this year. We pray we can grow closer to our Lord every day.

We had wonderful fellowship with our son Patrick and his family who live in the James Valley Hutterite colony near Winnipeg (where the wind chill was -51 degrees the other day). They were here since last Friday and left yesterday evening. Patrick and Betty are good parents, and the children are so precious. Six year old Titus sure enjoyed the Wii exercise game of running in place. Three year old Elizabeth Michiko is so sweet and loves to sing for us.

When we pray before and after the meal, also at the daily church time, Paul holds his hands together for the prayer. He is only 19 months old. He understands very well many things which is amazing to us. He is very friendly and goes to his Grandpa and likes to be held. Last night our youngest son, Jim, came and Paul ran to him and he was very happy to be held by his uncle. We all enjoyed playing with them.

Yesterday we had lunch at a nearby park, and we all enjoyed the beautiful weather and scenery. Three year old Elizabeth Michiko is so sweet and loves to sing for us.

Tomorrow our oldest son, Mike, is scheduled to be here with us. His daughter, Eryn, who is a student at New Mexico State University, and her swim team is coming to Tucson for a swim meet at the University of Arizona on Friday. So all of us are planning to go and see Eryn swim.

Jim gave his Mom a book in Japanese. He went to a Japanese grocery store in Seattle and found a Christian book! It is amazing. Michi is enjoying the book. Thank you, Lord. Thank you, Jim.

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you. (2 Cor 13:14)

To: Clarence Hofer
Minister
Big Stone Hutterian Brethren
Graceville, Minnesota

Mr. Hofer,

I was doing some research at the San Francisco Public Library and I found a book about the Hutterites entitled 'The Hutterites: A Study in Prejudice' by David Flint (Oxford University Press, 1975). The book describes Hutterite colony life at the Pincher Creek colony in Alberta, Canada. I became interested in learning more about the Hutterites so I began doing some research on the Internet.

I have been trying to find contact information for the main Hutterian Brethren Church which I believe is located in Canada. I found a Hutterite Timeline at the website [www.organicperspective.com] and I learned that in 1950 the 3 Hutterite Leuts joined together to form the Hutterite United Brethren Church in Canada. I have enclosed a copy of a webpage with the timeline information. At this point in time, I have not been able to find any contact information for this church. I would like to be able to contact the main Hutterian Brethren Church in the USA or Canada. I would appreciate your help with the name, location, and contact information for the main Hutterian Brethren Church as of 2009.

From my research, I learned that in 1992 a part of the Schmiedeleut separated from the main Hutterian Brethren Church in Canada. I am interested in locating the Hutterian Brethren Church which the majority of Hutterites recognize as the main Hutterian Brethren Church.

From reading the book by David Flint, I learned that the Hutterites primary occupation is farming and the Hutterite community contributes their skills to make a successful farming operation. I would like to know if your colony is offering employment. I would like to know what kinds of employment positions are available at your colony and if these positions are full-time or part-time. If your colony is offering employment, I would like to know what the pay rates and benefits are for the employment positions.

I have enclosed a self-addressed stamped envelope for your reply.

Sincerely,
Robert Eichhorn

1918: President Woodrow Wilson would not guarantee the Hutterites freedom from military service, and many of the colonies emigrated to Canada, to safeguard their pacifism.

Even so, fifty six Hutterites were caught up in the draft and attempts were made to force them into service. Most suffered severe abuse/torture, in efforts to convince them. Two died in the process.

1918: Michael and Joseph Hofer were the two who died, under terrible conditions, upon adhering to their religious convictions.

In subsequent military service, Hutterites were allowed to discharge their obligation by non military work such as national parks. In all, about fifty Hutterite families came to Canada, first in Alberta and Manitoba, then in Saskatchewan.

1942: Canada passed the Veteran's Land Act. This act established the law that land had to be offered for sale for sixty days before Hutterites were allowed to purchase it.

1942: Alberta passed the Alberta Land Sales Prohibition Act. This made it illegal for anyone to sell land to a Hutterite or an enemy alien.

1944: The Land Sales Prohibition Act will be struck down as beyond the power of the province because it also mentions enemy aliens. The Alberta government will re-enact the law (S.A. 1944, c.15) removing references to enemy aliens.

1947: Canada passed the Land Act pertaining to Hutterites. It restricted Hutterite land purchases, as well as size and location of colonies. They had to be at least 40 miles apart, and no larger than 6,400 acres. Colonies used to be situated closer to each other, but with these regulations, there is now more distance between them. One of the side effects of this greater distance is forcing the Hutterites to do more travelling to visit other colonies. As well, they also end up having more interaction with non Hutterites, simply because that's who their neighbours are.

1947: Alberta Communal Property Act S.A. 1947, c.16 will allow Hutterite colonies to be established if they are set up at least 40 miles from existing colonies. It also limited the size of existing colonies.

1950: Hutterites joined the three separate groups together, under one name to give themselves a better position to safeguard their beliefs and prospects. Hutterische Bruderkirche (Hutterite United Brethren Church).

1960: Alberta Communal Property Act will be amended to permit increased land holdings by Hutterites with the approval of the Communal Property Control Board. The establishment of new colonies will require cabinet approval.

1972: Alberta repeals The Communal Property Act, which had been basically aimed at restricting Hutterites ownerships of farm lands.

1992: Schmiedeleut section of the Hutterites broke into two. They are now called Committee Hutterites or Group 2, and Schmiedeleut or Group 1. There were conflicts over policies, and also concerns that some of the group's rules were not adhered to. They split on opposite sides of this disagreement.

1995: A Hutterite teacher training program is set up at Brandon University---Brandon

1972: Alberta repeals The Communal Property Act, which had been basically aimed at restricting Hutterites ownerships of farm lands.

1992: Schmiedeleut section of the Hutterites broke into two. They are now called Committee Hutterites or Group 2, and Schmiedeleut or Group 1. There were conflicts over policies, and also concerns that some of the group's rules were not adhered to. They split on opposite sides of this disagreement.

1995: A Hutterite teacher training program is set up at Brandon University---Brandon

To Robert Eickhorn

You had some questions about Colony life regarding employment positions, they are pretty well filled or far as pay rates no one gets a salary, everything is shared, but a good Pastor m.p. we could probably use.

Our main Hutterian Brethren Church would be like in Crystal Spring Colony St. Agath Manitoba, Jacob Kleinsasser

To: Eli Hofer
Minister
North Harlem colony
Harlem, Montana

Mr. Hofer,

Thank you for your reply to my letter. You indicate that the main elder of the Hutterites is John Stahl in Alberta, Canada. According to a webpage entitled 'Types of Hutterites' from the website [www.hutterites.org], there are elders for the 3 Hutterite Leuts. I would like to know if John Stahl is a elder for the Dariusleut, Lehrerleut, or Schmiedeleut, or the main Hutterian Brethren Church. I have enclosed a copy of the webpage for your reference.

I have written to about 50 Hutterite colonies in the USA to ask for the contact information for the main Hutterian Brethren Church in the USA or Canada. At this point in time, I have not received any contact information for the main Hutterian Brethren Church. I am trying to find the contact information for the Hutterian Brethren Church which the majority of Hutterites and the elders of the Dariusleut, Lehrerleut, and Schmiedeleut, recognize as the main Hutterian Brethren Church. The reason I want to contact the main Hutterian Brethren Church is to inquire about the Hutterian Brethren membership policy concerning joining a Hutterite colony. I realize that there are different viewpoints concerning the possibility of joining a Hutterite colony. I want to be able to establish the correct information regarding the Hutterian Brethren membership policy, so I would like to know if it is possible or impossible to join a Hutterite colony.

I have enclosed a self-addressed stamped envelope for your reply.

Sincerely,
Robert Eichhorn

Dear Mr Eukhorn:

I received your request for information. We'll try to answer as best as possible.

1. There is no overall "head" or Bishop for the Hutterian Brethren Church besides the Lords Jesus. Each different group has their own "elder" or "overseer". Pastor or Minister John Stahl is the present "Darius Lent acting elder." The Hutterite church doesn't have a policy as far as joining is concerned. Each colony makes a decision on an individual basis. First requirement would be "are you a born again believer? why are you having problems joining a local assembly where you live? etc.

Hope this is of some help to you.

Sincerely,

Pasta Eli Hofer
